REPORT OF MOTH WORK.

The condition of the trees on the highways outside of Main street was very good this year. On Main street we found the gypsy moths quite numerous during the larvre season, but we were able to get the larger portion of them under the burlap. The trees have all been thoroughly cleaned and inspected to date. All highway trees found infested were sprayed during the spraying season.

We had 4,200 street trees burlaped, on private property and woodland we had in the vicinity of 16,500 trees burlaped, which were tended either by the owners or town help. We find that the orchards that were tin-patched or cemented were the least infested.

We were unable to do all the tin-patching and cementing necessary to be done this past season, but which we hope to finish before the larvre season.

We have also found by inspection that all the orchards not tin-patched are badly infested.

The brown tail moths are all on trees, private property as well as street trees; they are more plentiful this year than last, which causes more expense to property owners. On inspection of the woodland we have found several colonies well established by the gypsy moths. Some of the colonies are on private property, the owners of same removing underbrush and inferior trees, preparatory to spraying and burlaping.

We do not know as yet what action the state will take in regard to woodland.

The most thorough method seems to be spraying, but with our present facilities and the short season the street trees seem to be about all we have time to get over, although the weather being favorable we were able to do some spraying on private property, that we found badly infested.

The large woodland owners are caring for their property privately again this year, which is a great help.

Again, I wish to thank you in behalf of the Town for your help in extermination of the moths.

J. D. BARNES,
Local Superintendent.

REPORT OF TREE WARDEN.

I have purchased and planted fifty maple trees, in accordance with the vote of the Town at the annual meeting; eight were placed on Arbor street and forty-two on Porter street. Have also removed one elm tree on Main street and transplanted to triangle near Baptist church; have also removed several dead trees and other dead wood.

We have 4,131 trees on the highways. Have found the elm leaf beetle on several trees in town. The canker worm gave us a great deal of trouble on Grapevine road and Walnut street. The sawfly were numerous on Larch street. Beyond the railroad crossing, they did quite a little damage in the way of defoliating.

It was thought to have been the work of the gypsy moths, but on inspection was found to be otherwise.

J. D. BARNES, Tree Warden.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL HOUSE BUILDING COMMITTEE

In the last annual Town Report your committee presented the report of the Auditor to whom the suit of H. B. Wallis & Son against the Town had been referred by the Superior Court. Upon the principal point in issue, namely, whether the Town was entitled to retain any damage from the balance claimed by the contractors, on account of delay, the Auditor reported that upon the facts the question of law was very close, but on the whole he found adverse to the Town. After the last annual meeting the case came before the Superior Court. The presiding justice, after hearing the Auditor's report and other evidence, reversed the finding of the Auditor in the matter of delay and allowed the Town three hundred and ten dollars, being for thirty-one days at ten dollars per day. The judgment for the plaintiff for the balance of his claim, interest and costs, less the above allowance, amounted to $3,846.22. The plaintiffs entered exceptions to the Supreme Judicial Court from the decision of the Judge of the Superior Court on the question of allowance for delay, which exceptions have not yet been allowed. In the meantime the full amount of the judgment of the Superior Court has been paid to stop interest charges.

The hearings before the Auditor and before the Superior Court occupied fourteen days, besides the time occupied in preparing the case, and the committee feel that the town is very fortunate that the costs of the court including plaintiffs' witnesses were only $122.05, the witnesses for the town, with two exceptions, having given their testimony without charge.

The building has been occupied and in charge of the school committee since May, 1907, and we feel that the Town has a substantial and convenient school building, sufficient for the needs of the Town for many years. The grounds are only partially graded and the end next to Perkins street, at least, should be fenced. This matter will be brought before the Town Meeting under a special article.

The following is a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the committee to Jan. 1, 1909.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

The foregoing accounts have been examined by me, and show to my best knowledge and belief the financial condition of the Town, January 1, 1909.

W. ARTHUR TROWT, Auditor.

SELECTMEN'S REPORT

During the year several proposed changes or improvements, which have been under process of transition, or discussion to say the least, for some time, have been brought to the point of completion. One which is most noticeable to the citizens of the centre of the town, especially, is the new rails and road-bed of the Boston & Northern R. R. A piece of property which of its kind is second to none in the Commonwealth. This work was done at a very great expense to the railroad company and is much appreciated by the patrons of the road.

While this work was being done the town availed itself of the opportunity of getting a large amount of filling at little or no expense. About two hundred loads were used in grading around the Peters' Memorial stone, about five hundred loads at the Town Hall, and one thousand loads in filling the low place in the cemetery.

The committee, which was appointed several years ago, to see that the site of Peters' Hill was suitably marked, have completed the work which was assigned to them, and their report in detail has been printed and distributed to the citizens of the town.

Another matter which has been mentioned for several years in town meeting, that of improving our street signs, has been given careful attention.

The special committee appointed for the purpose have complied with their instruction in such detail that there is no doubt in claiming that "he who runs may read."

The Selectmen have made a contract with the Pike & Whipple Co. of Peabody for a supply wagon for the fire department and will look for its delivery to the town in the near future.

Petitions are now before the County Commissioners for the defining of the lines on three of our streets, namely, Perkins Street, Larch Row and Walnut Road, and the Selectmen are waiting for the Commissioners to set and advertise the date of hearings.

It is the opinion of the Board of Selectmen that this work ought to be continued until all of our cross streets are thus defined.

The improvements on the Town house property, which were commenced in 1907, have been continued and nearly completed during the past year. Perhaps the most important of these has been the vault for the preservation of the town records and papers. This has been equipped with steel filing cases, shelves and drawers and is in every way suited for the use of the town for many years to come. A new floor has been laid in the hall, and the Selectmen's room has also received a new floor and been thoroughly renovated in other ways. A contract has also been given out for painting the exterior, including the roof, two coats, which work was not fully completed at the time this report goes to print.

Taken as a whole the Town house is in good condition and better supplied with modern improvements than ever before.

After the terrible conflagration of April 12th, which swept the city of Chelsea, the citizens of Wenham, through the Board of Selectmen, contributed the sum of $80.75 toward the relief of the sufferers of the stricken city. The following from the Chairman of the Board of Control is self-explanatory:

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF CONTROL

Chelsea, Mass., August 14, 1908.

Mr. Herbert W. Porter,
Chairman of Selectmen,
Wenham, Mass.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the citizens of Chelsea I beg to thank through you the Congregational Sunday School, the Baptist Sunday School and the various citizens of Wenham who subscribed for the benefit of the fire sufferers in this city. I assure you the same will be very acceptable and used to a great advantage.

Very truly yours,

W. E. McCLINTOCK.

The appropriation of $1,000 to abate the dust nuisance on Main Street was spent in conjunction with the State Highway Commission, $538 of which was used in oiling the surface of the street from the Hamilton line to a point near the cemetery, and $425 of the balance was contributed toward a series of experiments conducted by the Highway Commission, consisting of over forty different combinations of material, many of which have proved of doubtful value, while others seem to be very satisfactory.

We understand that it is the intention of the Commissioners to continue the work of re-surfacing the balance of the State Highway in this town during the coming season with some material which will be determined by the results obtained by the experiments mentioned above.

HERBERT W. PORTER,
N. PORTER PERKINS,
ARTHUR D. PRINCE,
Selectmen of Wenham.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Some special repairs have been necessary on all the district school buildings. At the West School, floor timbers were renewed, disclosing the fact that further and more extensive repairs would be necessary in the near future. The walls and ceilings of both the Neck and East Schools were done over, and new window shades supplied.

At the Center School, the committee, although the building has not been given into their charge, felt it incumbent upon them to arrange for snow guards on the slate roof. Without this precaution there was an element of danger, which the committee have no right to overlook. As a matter of economy, the building should be painted during the coming year, and repairs made to stop the present leakage.

The unfinished condition of the Center School grounds is in itself sufficient appeal for funds to start the work, for putting them in proper shape. With the demand and need for playgrounds, in all centers of population, our town is particularly fortunate in owning a tract of land so admirably adapted to park and playground purposes. The development of this land must be undertaken with great care; the planning of the work, requiring great forethought and understanding, in order that every dollar shall be put to its permanent use.

TEACHERS.

There have been several changes of teachers during the year:—the fall term opened with only two of the former staff. It is a pleasure to commend the general earnestness and ability with which they have conducted the work.

With but two exceptions, the teachers are living in town and the committee feel this is a distinct advantage to the schools—especially among the older pupils.

A teacher living in a community can more intelligently and wisely administer to the needs of each scholar. In proportion as she becomes a part of the life of the community, in so much greater proportion does she gain a knowledge of individual conditions, and receive the cooperation of the home.

With additional requirements each year, asked by the State, a teacher must be more than ordinarily equipped to face the problem of keeping several grades to standard. This year, in accordance with a law passed March, 1908—special instruction as to tuberculosis and its prevention must be given, as a regular branch of study in connection with the subejct of physiology and hygiene to all pupils in all schools, which are supported wholy or partly by public money. To present this subject so that it will accomplish the work intended requires time in preparation, and more time in teaching. This work has yet to be taken up in our schools.

ATTENDANCE.

The general attendance has been exceptionally good during the year. With an enrollment of 164, we have an average of 140.5. The work of the schools has not been interfered with by any serious epidemic, or continuance of bad weather.

In connection with the attendance it may be well to state the regulation, that all pupils entering the first grade, must begin the school year in September. Children who are five or will be five during the first term are entitled to enrollment at that time only.

DISTRICT SCHOOLS.

The general condition of the District Schools is good.

The thirteen pupils of the West School are making good progress, and are getting a foundation of principles, apart from rules, which prepares the way for excellent results.

The Neck School enrolls thirty pupils, and carries the full eight grades. Here discipline, organization and untiring zeal are needed to even complete the day's work, and average a fifteen minute period to each recitation. The spirit of the school has improved, and every effort made to get as much into the prescribed time as possible, but we cannot expect the children to show the same background, and uniformity which we have a right to demand in our schools of two or three grades. The child with an active mind does not so much lose, by the limited time given to each lesson—it is the mediocre pupil who needs more time for explanation and drill work.

The Neck from present indications promises to be a large school for some years to come, and the committee feel that it will be fairer to both the younger and older pupils, when the number of grades is reduced to six.

The East School is our smallest school, with but eleven pupils; as six of these scholars are from one family, it may be well understood that the school is not so important a factor in the community as in other districts, where the school represents a larger number of homes.

What we need in all our district schools is more time in drill work, and in explanation. We ask the cooperation of the parents in all the schools—to see to it that the home work is faithfully performed.

Home work has a two-fold advantage to our older pupils—and will be of great advantage in bringing uniformity in the school work, throughout the town, as well as among the pupils of varying ability in each grade.

HIGH SCHOOL.

We are now transporting 38 pupils to High School. It may be well to explain, as parents so frequently request transportation by steam, that all Beverly pupils are given transportation by trolley; parents desiring their children to go by train, pay the increase in expense. Salem pupils are given transportation by train, as the course is one year shorter.

We regret to say that some of our pupils have forgotten the conduct becoming to one in a public place, and the committee take this occasion to ask the parents especially to guard the children against misconduct in going to and from High School. Failing to heed this warning, pupils will forfeit the right to free transportation.

Hereafter admission by certificate will be granted only to those pupils who pass the special examinations, referred to in the Superintendent's report.

The number of children taking advantage of the High School course is increasing with each year.

While the committee feel that every pupil may be the gainer for a High School course—we would impress upon all pupils their responsibility in improving the opportunity for advancement which the town so freely offers.

For the maintenance of the school department for the coming year, the Committee ask for the following appropriations:

Teaching	$1,820 00
Janitors	500 00
Fuel	400 00
Books and supplies	350 00
School physician	15 00
High School tuition	2,000 00
High School transportation	550 00
Repairs	350 00
	$5,985 00

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

To the School Committee of the Town of Wenham:

Gentlemen:

The following report, which is the seventh in a series of reports by the Superintendent of Schools, is respectfully submitted to your consideration.

The year has been a profitable one as far as educational progress is concerned. While no marked changes have been inaugurated and no novel theories exploited, there has been a steady development by the children through an intensified effort to give them a training which will be of the truest value to them.

The course of study is practically the same as in the past and is very similar to that carried out in neighboring towns and cities of our Commonwealth.

In order that the standard of our grades shall not fall below that of other towns, it has been determined not to enter pupils into High School by certification but by examination. There will be two examinations given: one in February and another in June. These examinations will be of corresponding rank to those given in Beverly and perhaps the June examinations may be given by the Beverly superintendent. Pupils who fail to pass the former test are not to be allowed to take the finals. Each year we labor to discover at what points we may strengthen the pupils' general scholarship for the future in its more practical applications. For instance in the present year we have put extra emphasis upon oral drill in idiomatic expressions frequently violated in ordinary conversation; upon correct English in all recitations; and upon an ability to relate orally classic and heroic stories. The language work of our pupils is never what we desire; we constantly note the poor spelling and ungrammatical speech of the children. These habits of incorrect expression have been fixed from early childhood and it takes years of the best efforts of the school to implant correct forms. No amount of teaching technical grammar will rectify these mistakes until the child repeats the correct forms until they are natural to him. To establish a respect for our Mother tongue, accurately spoken and written, is always an aim in our curriculum. During the past year we believe a rather material gain has been made in this fundamental branch.

During the fall term Dr. John T. Prince, Agent of the State Board of Education, visited our schools and gave the teachers a suggestive talk on "The Teaching of English."

A small amount of time is spent on the less practical processes in Arithmetic with the purpose of gaining greater accuracy in the fundamentals: fractions, measurements, percentage and interest. Could we utilize the time often spent in dawdling over certain processes in brisk, energetic thinking, far more would be attained in the same period of time. Intensive, energetic oral work has improved during the present year.

SUPERINTENDENT'S TIME.

The district of which our town is a part is composed of Wenham, Hamilton, Essex and Middleton. The time of the Superintendent is apportioned as follows: Essex, one and a half days each week; Hamilton, one and a half days; Middleton, one day; and Wenham, one day. With one day a week in the town the schools cannot be visited as often as might be wished. It requires a half day to visit any one of the three district schools. If half a day a week is spent in one of the district schools and a half day in the Center School, the time is all occupied each week. Therefore it is quite evident that no one district school can possibly be visited oftener than once in two or three weeeks. Some days are likewise occupied in visiting other schools and in attending educational conventions.

SCHOOL GARDENS.

Throughout the State there has been a strong effort to arouse interest in plant and animal life, especially through experimentation. We began this line of work by starting a school garden. A plot of about 50 by 100 feet was plowed, harrowed and fertilized last spring. Ten gardens were laid out and two children selected to take care of each garden plot. Much enthusiasm was shown and the gardens came on finely until the close of school. Then owing to the dry weather and a lack of supervision during the summer the gardens deteriorated. In the fall the gardens were cleaned and the produce harvested. The material results were not as satisfactory as we had anticipated. We believe there was inspired a respect for such close contact with the soil which will prove of lasting profit to those who were thus engaged. There was about enough produce sold to pay for the plowing, fencing and seeds. With the first year's experience better results are looked for next year. Two prizes were offered by the Village Improvement Society; one for the best kept home garden and one for the best kept school garden. Hammond Tracey was awarded the prize for the home garden and Grace and William Glavin that for the best kept school garden. A second prize for excellently kept school garden was given by Mrs. J. B. Pickett and awarded to Blanch Stanton and Beatrice Dodge.

GRAMMAR GRADUATES.

Last June there were eight pupils who finished the Grammar school work in our town; two at the East School, three at the Neck and three at the Center. Six of these pupils are in the High School.

At present pupils who finish the Grammar course receive no diplomas. Perhaps in a town which has no High School some certificate should be given pupils showing that they have completed the preliminary course. In a town where there is a High School it is the concensus of opinion that Grammar School graduations are not beneficial. There is a constant danger of too much time and expense being devoted to such exercises, and a possible impression by children or their parents that a halting place has been reached in school days. Although if these exercises can be carried on simply it will be an impetus to some children in our town to continue to the close of the eighth year's work.

AGE OF ENTRANCE.

There is a noticeable tendency for towns to change from a nine year to an eight year system below the High School. With this custom is coupled that of entering the primary grade at the age of six instead of five. Where the home environment is good there is no doubt that children are better off not entering school at all until they are six years old, but in cases where mothers are out at work children are better cared for in school than at home. Where conditions require that children are sent out of homes as young as possible, some towns and cities are establishing schools known as sub-primaries for children below the age of six. In these schools the kindergarten method is used while some regular lessons are given. Under this system delicate young children are not put to the rigor and pressure necessary to complete the first grade work in one year.

SCHOOL GROUNDS.

The grading about the Center School building has been only partly completed. The road to Perkins street is very much needed as at times the children have difficulty in crossing with dry feet. No plan has yet been adopted for the permanent arrangement of the grounds. This work should be mapped out by a landscape gardener so that each year the work can be gradually carried to a harmonious fulfillment.

DISTRICT SCHOOLS.

The district schools of the town are all situated upon roads which are thoroughfares for fast speeding motor cars, where the children are in constant danger of accident. Moreover, these schools have no playgrounds. The value of properly organized play is an important factor in the development of youth, and has its regular place in the curriculum wherever schools purpose the most healthful training. The Neck School should have larger grounds and ampler school facilities. As there are about thirty pupils, with the work of all the grades taught, it is next to impossible to do justice to all the pupils. Either the East School should be consolidated with the Neck into two rooms, a primary and a grammar, or else the eighth grade at the Neck should be taken to the Center School.

DECORATIONS AND GIFTS.

A material gain has been made in the decoration of the walls of the Center School. With the money made at the sale last February a fine picture was purchased for Intermediate room. This is a Dutch wharf scene in color and is greatly enjoyed by the children. An excellent picture of Whittier was given the Grammar room by Mrs. Lucy Batchelder Tripp, "For the Sake of Auld Lang Syne'." The Primary room is yet without pictures. It is hoped that something may be raised at a sale soon to be held in the Center School building. Such a public day offers a special attraction to induce citizens of the town to become acquainted with the teachers and certain activities of the school. Similar exhibits will be held in the district schools during the spring.

REMUNERATION OF TEACHERS.

At the annual meeting of the Essex County Teachers' Association held in Peabody, November, 1907, a committee was appointed to investigate the relation of the salaries of teachers to their requirements and the demands upon them, in comparison with these same points in the occupations other than teaching largely engaged in by women. After securing data from every town in the County and consulting other reports a report was made to the association at its last meeting.

The report is too long to quote in full, but in substance the statistics reveal that the demands upon teachers are more severe than upon women in other occupations; that nurses with less expensive training earn a much larger salary, and that stenographers with a far shorter course of training are earning from 20 to 25 per cent. more than do teachers.

I quote in part from the report:

"The luxuries of one generation become the necessities of the next. Standards of living are constantly being raised, and the public demands that teachers shall conform to these new standards. Moreover, it demands that teachers shall preserve their health through the rest and the recreation of suitable vacation seasons; that they shall contribute both of their time and of their money to a variety of forms of social service; that they shall continue to grow in knowledge, in power, and in professional skill; and that they shall lay aside a competency in order that, when their efficiency begins to diminish, they may be retired from the active service of the school to a comfortable old age.

"No community is willing that its teachers shall live in homes whose only recommendation is that board is cheap; that they shall increase their income by engaging in fatiguing labor evenings or during the summer vacation; that they shall evade all responsibility for the maintenance of the church, that they shall make no contribution to charitable objects, or that they render no kind of public service.

"The public demands of the teachers of their children professional growth. They should attend lectures; read current and professional literature; increase the size of their libraries; travel both for recreation and study; attend summer schools, and take Saturday courses for teachers offered by the colleges and universities.

"But the scarcity of teachers is an established fact. More remunerative occupations are steadily drawing the attention of young women of ability and promise away from the teaching profession. Larger requirements and consequently more expensive preparation are demanded of teachers than formerly. It is an open question whether the normal schools and colleges are attracting as efficient a membership of prospective teachers as in the days when the demands were less exacting and when fewer attractive occupations were open to women. The dearth of superior teachers suggests that the question may be answered in the affirmative. The problem is, in a large degree, one of supply and demand, and the surest and most immediate way to increase the supply of competent teachers is to increase the wage. Moreover, it is the belief of the committee that salaries have not kept pace with advancing standards of work and a greater degree of efficiency as indicated by results.

"In order that the profession shall attract a large number of teachers of superior training and ability salaries must, at least, be placed on a par with those of other occupations comparable to teaching, and merit should be recognized by presenting opportunity for advancement.

"No kind of work requires more thorough preparation, a greater degree of skill, more varied attainments or a more earnest desire to render real service to humanity than teaching, and the measure of a teacher's worth is quality of service. The welfare of the children is the most important consideration, and every dollar expended should bring the largest possible return; but 'The laborer is worthy of his hire,' and no moderate salary is too great for the thoroughly competent teacher."

CHANGE OF TEACHERS.

Each year we are compelled to report a larger number of changes in the teaching staff than is conducive to the best welfare of the schools. It would seem as if the Town of Wenham is able to compete with other towns of the State in the matter of salaries paid its teachers since, as was shown in my last report, Wenham stands with those towns which spend the least according to valuation for the support of schools.

At the close of school last June Miss Reid of the Center Grammar School; Miss Lanphear of the Center Primary; Miss Norton of the Neck School and Miss Gerry of the West School all resigned. These positions were filled by hiring Miss Maud Adlington for the Center Grammar; Miss Avis Carleton for the Center Primary; Miss Ethel Cleale for the Neck; and Miss Nettie Carroll for the West School. Each of these teachers is proving herself exceptionally fitted to her work.

MUSIC.

Mr. Edward N. C. Barnes has conducted the music since the fall term.

In October, Mr. George Smith, our Supervisor of Music, was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia and died. No truer tribute can be paid Mr. Smith's worth than what was written about him by a pupil:

"Mr. Smith was one who lived the sunny side out. Whenever he came to us, our hearts were brightened by the cheery greeting which he never forgot to give, and by that spirit of genial comradeship which, we felt, he bestowed on each and all. His unfailing energy and enthusiasm ever inspired us, and called forth, in response, the best that was in us. Although he was with us only three years, we all loved him as teacher, comrade, and friend, and he leaves a vacant place in our hearts."

Mr. Smith was a man unusually well adapted to his chosen work, full of inspiration and enthusiasm.

In closing this report I wish to express to the teachers my thanks for their unfailing devotion to duty and for their courtesy towards me upon all occasions. To the Committee I am grateful for a cooperation which has made my work easier and more agreeable.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW S. THOMSON,

Superintendent of Schools.

TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT

TOWN OF WENHAM, MASS.

Year Ending December 31, 1908

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES.

To the Citizens of Wenham:

The Twenty-fourth Annual Report of the Trustees of the Public Library for the year 1908 is herewith presented.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

Henry A. Moulton, Chairman, Term expires March, 1909
Alice Gertrude Whitney, Term expires March, 1910
Benjamin H. Conant, Secretary and Librarian, Term expires March, 1911

The beginning of the year 1908 found us busily engaged in re-classifying the Library. The need of an improved system of classification had long been apparent, and at the earnest solicitation of the Ladies' Village Improvement Society, the work was undertaken late in the previous year. In this work several of the members of that society, especially Miss Ruth Prince, rendered valuable gratuitous service in preparing the books for use, while the librarian spent nearly his whole time for several months in the work. We also had the assistance of an experienced cataloguer from Boston several times during the progress of the work.

The classifying, arranging and numbering of the books may seem to some people a simple matter, but no one without experience can have any adequate idea of the perplexities of the work.

While this work was going on, the Library was closed, which as time went on, caused some unfavorable criticism, so that although much remained to be done, it was thought best to get the books into circulation as soon as possible.

The Library was opened to the public about the first of June, and since that time has been open (holidays excepted), every Monday and Thursday afternoon from three to five o'clock, and also Monday evening from half-past seven to nine o'clock.

At first the patronage was rather light, but increased later in the season, and at the end of the year two hundred and fifty-eight readers' cards had been issued.

Up to the present time the library has been patronized chiefly by children and young people, comparatively few of the adult population making any use of it.

There has also been far less use of the reading room than was anticipated, although those who have made use of it appear to have enjoyed the privilege. The tables have been supplied during the year with a liberal selection of current magazines.

The re-classifying and numbering of the books of course rendered the old catalogue of little practical use. The new book numbers have been written into one copy of the old catalogue, and this, with a single manuscript list of the later books, is all from which the people now have to select their books.

There has been a great demand for a new printed catalogue, but the trustees have not felt justified in incurring the necessary expense without further instructions from the town.

A beginning has been made on a card catalogue, the Ladies' Society having presented a fine cabinet of thirty drawers for this purpose, but on this much remains to be done before it will be ready for use.

In re-arranging the books, some of the less desirable and many of those which had become worn out by long use, and perhaps it might in some cases be added, "by sore abuse," were withdrawn from circulation.

At the present time the great majority of the juvenile books are practically worn out, and unfit for further use. Nearly all of these should be withdrawn, and new books of better quality (if possible) be purchased to take their places. In making selections of books for the Library the needs of the young people have always been considered. And while a considerable number of so-called juvenile books have been purchased, many of these will be found equally acceptable to readers of more mature age. In adult fiction it is impossible to meet the full demand, but a liberal proportion of the funds at our disposal have been used in this direction. The strictly educational department of the Library, however, has not been neglected, and in this section may be found a number of up-to-date books which ought to be of interest to the more thoughtful citizens of the town. Among those that have recently been purchased may be noted:—"Present Day Problems," by President-elect Taft; "The United States as a World Power," by Coolidge; "Poems of American History," edited by Stevenson; "The Other Americans," by Ruhl, (descriptive of South America); "The Story of the Pharaohs," by Baikie, (recounting the latest explorations in Egypt); "Scientific Ideas of Today," by Gibson; "Hygiene for Nurses," by Miss McIsaac; and several volumes of those very interesting books descriptive of Life in Town and Country in various foreign lands.

In Biography:—"Lincoln, Master of Men"; "The Story Life of Lincoln"; "Abraham Lincoln, the Boy and the Man"; "Theodore Roosevelt, the Boy and the Man"; "The Life of Chaplain McCabe"; "The Life of Alice Freeman Palmer"; "Thomas Alva Edison; Sixty Years of An Inventor's Life"; "Heroes of Modern Crusades," being true stories of champions of the down-trodden in many lands. These, with others of like character which might be mentioned, are well worthy of careful consideration. We believe that if books of this description were more widely read, the library would better accomplish the work for which it is designed and maintained.

In addition to books purchased, numerous gifts have been received, a list of which may be found in the tables of statistics appended:

In re-cataloguing the Library a considerable number of books which were worn out and unfit for further service were dropped from the list, also, some others which had been laid aside for rebinding were omitted in cataloguing, which will account for the seeming discrepancy in the reports for 1907 and 1908.

Of the uncatalogued matter we are not now prepared to render a detailed report, as there still remains at the librarian's house a considerable quantity of material which until it is taken to the Library room and properly arranged cannot be more than approximately estimated. Of this class there are now in the Library room about twelve hundred volumes; and the remainder, together with nearly all of the pamphlet literature belonging to the Library, is still at the librarian's house.

We hope during the coming year to have this material arranged so that it may be properly accounted for, and made available for use.

TREE WARDEN'S REPORT

This season twelve maples were purchased, used mostly to replace dead trees. We also had considerable clearing up to do, the result of the storms during the winter.

One large Larch tree in front of Mr. Moulton's estate, Maple street, was struck by lightning, badly shattered and had to be removed. We also removed a dead Ash tree on Friend court.

At the present time I do not know whether the state is to care for the Elm leaf beetle or not. If not, there should be some spraying done, as they are very plentiful all over town.

The last few storms have done considerable damage to the trees in all sections of the town, which means an extra amount of work this spring.

(Signed) J. D. BARNES,
Tree Warden.

REPORT OF MOTH SUPERINTENDENT.

At this writing the street trees have all been cleaned. We have cleared all the highways of underbrush which the state did not think we would be able to do this season. We are now working on private property.

The woodland throughout the town is badly infested with the Gypsy Moth. It is very essential that a strip 100 feet wide be cut along the highway through the woodland for protection. The only hope now for the woodland, is to thin out and clear the underbrush, in order that we may get at it to spray. Thus saving the best trees.

We now have two plantings of parasites, and shall have more as soon as the state can furnish them.

(Signed) J. D. BARNES,
Local Moth Superintendent.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

This is to certify that I have examined the books and accounts of the Selectmen, School Committees, Trustees of the Public Library, Town Clerk and Treasurer, for the year ending Jan. 1, 1910, and find them correct, with satisfactory vouchers for all orders drawn on the Treasurer. I have also examined the Tax Collector's books for the years 1907, 1908 and 1909, and find the amount unpaid on the several books to be as stated.

W. ARTHUR TROWT, Auditor.

Wenham, Feb. 17, 1910.

SELECTMEN'S REPORT

In the matter of abating the dust on Main Street, it seemed necessary to overrun the appropriation. When application was made to the Highway Commission for permission to oil the street, they were very definite in the specifications which were to be followed in doing the work. A different process was adopted from what was used the preceding year, and seems to have been an experiment of the Commission at the expense of the Town. In the process of dust laying for the benefit of the town, there was also accomplished in a very large degree, the preservation of the road bed, which expense belongs to the Highway Commission to assume.

It is the opinion of the selectmen that the town take somewhat different action this year than in preceding years.

Early in the year a petition was received from the Beverly Gas and Electric Company to grant them a location for poles and wires on Topsfield Road from Beverly line to Topsfield line, for the purpose of supplying the said town of Topsfield with electricity for lighting purposes. After a view and due consideration the locations were granted.

During the process of the work some of the employes of the company seemed disposed to disregard the wishes of the tree warden of this town in regard to trimming the trees, and in order to protect himself and the town he felt obliged to apply to the court for an injunction, restraining the company from further work until satisfactory arrangements could be made. After a hearing and full conference with the officers of the company, who seemed perfectly willing to do what was right in the matter, it was agreed that the trees should be trimmed under the direction of the tree warden, and that the expense of the injunction and other expenses attendant thereto be paid by the company. This was done as will be seen by report of the treasurer.

A considerable portion of the appropriation for extra highway work was expended in raising the grade of the road on Wenham Causeway near the Topsfield line. On account of the soft and yielding nature of the soil and muck underneath, this piece of road has settled more or less for many years, and several times the road grade has been raised, but it is believed that "hard pan" has now been reached and that the expense for repairs will be less in the future. The hill leading to the said Causeway is also in a fair condition following the repairs of 1908 but requires frequent attention to prevent washing.

The principal of the "Mary Perkins Fund" ($3000) for the assistance of the deserving poor of the town, has by vote of the trustees of said fund been drawn from the town treasury, where it has been since first received, and deposited in the Danvers Savings Bank. The only fund now remaining in the treasury is the "Allen Cemetery Fund" of $475 for which the town voted to allow 6 per cent interest to help provide for the annual needs of the cemetery.

The suit of H. B. Wallis & Son against the town, which was referred to the Supreme Court on the question of damages on account of delay in completing the contract for building the new schoolhouse, was argued before that Court at the November term held in Salem. After full consideration the said Court decided in favor of the defendants thus relieving the town from any futher payments.

The County Commissioners gave a hearing in the town room in December last in regard to changing and defining the street lines on Walnut Road, Larch Row and Perkins Street and carefully examined the plans prepared and heard the suggestions of several citizens. It seems probable that in the near future a decree will be given by them defining the lines and making the changes proposed.

The following letter is self explanatory.

Boston, Nov. 19, 1909.

Arthur D. Prince, Esq.,

Clerk of Selectmen, Wenham, Mass.

Dear Sir.

I feel that your Board and town should know exactly what has been done by my Committee on the Wenham roads this year and what the work cost.

You will remember that your Board agreed to allow $100.00 toward the shaping of Grapevine Road and the other roads in Wenham leading to Beverly Farms. It seems to me that it would be only right in the future for Wenham to allow considerable more money, considering how much is being done on those roads.

The actual cost of the shaping and repairs in the spring was $111.60 of which Wenham paid $100. We have built some experimental sections of road there using various kinds of oils and asphalts, mixed with gravel in various ways, which cost $656 26. The repairs and oiling of Grapevine Road and the other roads leading to Myopia cost $1402.76 when they were first made and $164.25 for the patching that was done in the middle of the summer.

A part of this money was spent on a piece of road in Hamilton from the Wenham line up to Mr. Bush's avenue and the Myopia Club, The cost of this was something in the neighborhood of $250.00, as near as I can estimate it. I did not have the accounts separated.

We spent on the roads in Wenham about $2,000 in addition to the $100.00 expended by the town, making a total of about $2100.

Your Board may be interested to know that, so far as I am aware, the cost of this work was considerably less than the average cost of oiling the various roads which the Highway Commission has oiled in various parts of the State.

I thought you might like these facts for your Annual Report, and it seems to me that it would only be fair, under the circumstances, for Wenham to allow at least $50 per mile per year, in the future, toward the repair of nearly five miles of road which we take care of in Wenham. Your Board must realize that it is very much easier to raise money when the town makes a reasonable appropriation toward the expense, otherwise, the summer residents feel that they are not receiving fair treatment.

Yours very truly,

WILLIAM D. SOHIER.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES H. McQUEENY,
N. PORTER PERKINS,
ARTHUR D. PRINCE,
Selectmen of Wenham.

REPORT OF SPECIAL HIGH SCHOOL COMMITTEE

The committee appointed by the town to consider a more practical plan for High School instruction organized Dec. 29 with Rev. Frank Parker, chairman ; Mrs. E. B. Cole, secretary.

The investigation necessary for the proper consideration of the question was entrusted to sub-committees. Upon the report of these members, the committee voted unanimously to recommend to the town that

Whereas, the first requisite in starting a High School would be a new building, or a large addition to the present Center School building, and

Whereas, the pupils from the town choose from three courses of study : two-thirds taking the commercial course, one-eighth the college course, and the remainder the general course, and

Whereas, it would be impossible at anything like the present expense to offer such varied courses, and

Whereas, from the present school enrollment, the committee felt the number of High School pupils would not increase after 1911, and

Whereas, a union High School seemed inadvisable, therefore be it

Resolved, that for the present the town continue its custom of sending High School pupils to Beverly or Salem, and

Whereas, the establishment of a ninth grade would involve more or less rearrangement of the school system, and such grade would be several points behind the corresponding grade in Beverly, be it further

Resolved, that the matter of ninth grade be left to the School Committee, to take action, at such time, if any, that it might seem expedient.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE

Appointed at the Special Town Meeting for Improving the Center School House Grounds

The committee, consisting of the Board of Selectmen and School Committee, organized in July, with Mr. George Bowden, chairman; Mrs. E. B. Cole, secretary. Mr. G. A. Metcalf of Salem was first employed to stake out and set the grade for the proposed street leading from Arbor to Pleasant streets, and the driveway leading from this proposed street to the school-house entrance.

The committee then advertised for bids to excavate and construct this street according to specifications, and the contract for the work was awarded to C. W. Perkins of Wenham, as the lowest bidder. Bids were also asked for the construction of the driveway leading to the school house, according to the grade stakes, and the work given to J. D. Barnes, as the lowest bidder.

The committee have expended to date the following sums:

Staking and setting grades	$ 19 25
Construction of street	228 50
" " driveway and grading	79 60
Excavating and sodding borders of driveway	20 00
Extra labor, smoothing up playground	4 00
	$351 35
Cr. 26 loads soil, J. D. Barnes	13 00
	$338 35

To make the street satisfactory, the committee expect to do further work in the spring, as the condition seems to warrant.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE V. BOWDEN,
Chairman.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

The District school buildings have received no outlay in the shape of repairs, but both the East and Neck schools will need some attention during the coming year.

The Center school building has been painted and the leakage about the windows repaired; this repair required a good deal of new stock and more or less tearing away, but proved not to be as expensive as the committee feared. An additional and unexpected expense was that of the new flush tanks. The character of the water is such that it corrodes both pipes and metal linings. Relining the old tanks, all of which were leaking and had previously been repaired, proved to be so large an expense for a temporary repair that it was deemed best to purchase a simpler form of tank, zinc lined, a tically seamless. The use of such a tank reduces the action of the water to a minimum as well as keeping down the repair bill.

The school grounds at the Center have also been greatly improved. At a special town meeting in June, money was appropriated for this purpose and during the summer a road was built connecting Perkins and Arbor streets. From this new street a driveway was built to the school house entrance, and the frontage graded. The three foot border and circle of the driveway have been planted by the Village Improvement Society with appropriate hedging and specimen shrubs. In addition to this planting the Improvement Society has placed a hedge of evergreens on the north side and a group of larger specimen trees, as a wind break, where the children enter the school. The committee would take this occasion to publicly express appreciation for this gift from the Improvement Society. The children have also shown their appreciation, by their care, in avoiding any injury to the shrubs and trees, and in protecting the general neatness of the school grounds.

The town interest in the school grounds having met with such hearty outside co-operation, we hope and recommend that something may be done each year to carry on the plan of improvement. A sidewalk and trees bordering the new street is our recommendation for the coming year.

GENERAL CONDITION.

When there is no marked innovation or special defect to chronicle, it is difficult to sum up in a few words a general school condition.

Our teachers have given to us their best efforts. No teacher can always find at once the right way of presenting a subject, the method that will not only stimulate the pupils but will make for solid foundations, and it is especially to the credit of our teaching force that they are ever alert to find the best methods, not only for class work, but also for the individual child, and equally ready to strengthen any apparent weakness, whenever it is suggested. Teaching ruts are not numbered among our faults.

The Center school with a membership of 112 shows an increase of five. The enrollment in the district schools has however decreased.

The East school, though the smallest in town, with its ten pupils, has caused the most anxiety, for the same results are not attained here as in our other schools. A spirit of indifference gives results unsatisfactory to all interested in the school. While we regret the lack of progress here, we feel that the children are capable of better effort, and must get more from these too quickly passing school years. It is a problem the supervisors must solve, or fail in their duty, and we ask for hearty co-operation in every and all effort to give a better equipment.

In June, 1909, the first public graduation of the Grammar school was held. The committee believe that some public exercises and award of diplomas at this time is a helpful innovation. The period of leaving the Grammar school is an event in any child's life, whether their school education is to be continued or end at that time. Of the nine who received diplomas, seven entered High schools in September.

The health of the pupils has been especially good, no epidemics disturbing the year. The teachers have made the annual eye test, and several children, found with defective vision, have been helped by glasses, and their school work greatly simplified.

The school physician, Dr. Eaton, has visited each school, and given the teachers instructions in observing symptoms of contagious diseases, as well as suggesting the removal of adenoids where known to exist.

In accordance with the request of the State Board of Health that the school discontinue the common drinking vessel, which has been proven to be a source of infection, the committee voted to abolish the use of the common drinking cup, and ask the teachers to request that each child be provided with an individual cup to be kept in the desk. Such a provision has been the custom in some of our schools for the past year, but where the rule is a new one it is hoped the parents will encourage the children to strictly adhere to the use of the individual drinking cup, and so eliminate this source of infection or contagion.

SCHOOL EXPENSES.

During the last few years our school appropriation has been very largely increased, owing both to the increased cost of administration and the increased number in the High school, both legitimate and necessary expenses.

The statement which has been made in the last two reports relative to the amount of money Wenham is spending for schools, we fear has been slightly misunderstood. The report states that "Wenham stands with those towns which spend the least, according to valuation for their schools." This statement is perfectly true, but seems by some to mean that Wenham is parsimonious, and the schools are not getting what they should. In reply we would say that such a comparison means nothing as to the condition of the schools, for in the same table in which Wenham stands 344, paying for its schools $2.26 per thousand valuation, the town of Brookline, which supports a most elaborate and costly public school system, stands 346, paying only $2.16 per thousand. It is obvious that such statistics, when taken alone, give a very erroneous idea of the town's rank. That Wenham is spending freely to give the best opportunity that is in the power of a country town, with a small enrollment living in four separate districts, the committee would refer to the rank of the town in the amount expended for each child being educated at public expense. Wenham stands 24 in the list of 354 towns and cities of Massachusetts, yielding to each child $45.33, of which $37.66 is raised by local taxation. This statement is made not in any way to suggest curtailing our expenses, for that we could not do without limiting the opportunities of our children, but we most surely wish to correct any impression that Wenham is not where we are proud to keep her, in the front rank in trying to secure for the children the best public school opportunities in the power of a small country town.

For the maintenance of the school department for the coming year, the committee ask for the following appropriations:

Teaching	$1755 00
Janitors	500 00
Fuel	350 00
Books and supplies	425 00
High School tuition	2100 00
High School transportation	450 00

	$ 5805 00

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the Members of the School Committee:

It affords me pleasure to submit to you this, my eighth annual report, as superintenednt of the schools of our town.

In making a report at this time, approximately the middle of the school year, we must of necessity cover the second half of the last school year, from January to June, 1909, and the former half of the present school year. It must be borne in mind, however, that, by the law of the Commonwealth, the statistical tables of school attendance cover the school year ending June, 1909.

Grammar School Graduation.

A new custom was inaugurated last spring when the pupils who had completed the grammar course were given a diploma. The exercises, which were simple and pleasing, were held in the Center Grammar School. Diplomas were granted eleven pupils as follows:

Raymond Trott
Blanche Stanton
Robert Durland
Edna Treffrey
Alice Batchelder
Lucy Brown
Rachael Cook
Porter Perkins
Gertrude Peterson
Mary Young
Alice Pembroke

School Attendance.

The attendance in the schools for the last year was excellent, with an average per cent of 95 for the town, which is above the average of the state. Wenham pupils are always very regular in attendance. Parents take pride in having their children at school every day. The roll of honor in the appendix, is much larger in Wenham according to its number of pupils than in most towns.

Entrance to High School.

It was my hope that the Beverly authorities would take upon themselves the examination of the Wenham pupils seeking admission to their High School last spring. Their decision was that those who had worked with the pupils were best fitted to judge the qualifications of the pupils examined. Two examinations were given: one in February, and another in June. The final test was held in the Center School building, to which the pupils of the outlying schools came, devoting the entire day to the tests. Several pupils were obliged to study during the summer and take another examination in the fall. Eight pupils entered the Beverly High, and one the Salem High, where all are doing passing work, while some are taking a high rank.

During the present year I have been outlining the work to be done in the fundamental subject for periods of six weeks, at the end of which period a test has been given upon the work outlined. This plan of following a definite outline insures certain work accomplished, although it is likely to narrow the teacher's field of work. The method has a unifying effect throughout the different schools and is of considerable assistance to a teacher new to the work. The results of these tests, similarly with those of last year, indicate the inability of the district school children to compete with those of the same grades in the Center School. The time for drilling is so much greater in a room of fewer grades that its pupils are better prepared to meet test requirements.

Value of High School Education.

The question of the economic administration of a high school has many view points. There are those who take little interest in the rapid growth of high schools during the past few years. They feel that the growth is due to a lowering of standards of admittance, and that the unfit are allowed to enter. They urge "Weed out the unfit at the beginning, much to the relief of both teachers and taxpayers." Although this may be the "way of least resistance," it has the weight of opinion of the most enlightened educators against it, and with reason.

In the first place it requires more than a brief interview to separate the fit from the unfit, especially is this so with children of the grammar school age.

The plodder, who, with greatest difficulty, can do very low passing work, reaps greater personal benefit, and in many cases will prove himself a far more helpful member of society, than some brilliant boy who acquires readily, yet wastes his time and talents. Therefore, mere attainment, at a given instant, is not a true test of distinction between the fit and the unfit.

There is a strong concession of opinion that even the most unpromising pupils receive much benefit from their attendance at a good high school. The most valuable results in such cases cannot be measured by marks, or a definite amount of knowledge skilfully injected.

Rather is it the broadened outlook, the inspiration from certain subjects otherwise unknown, the general raising of ideals and interests in life, which, priceless to the individual recipient, are equally invaluable to the nation, when multiplied by the thousands which we have to estimate.

It is becoming more and more to be recognized that when a pupil has culled out of a certain grade or school all that there is in it for him he should be admitted to the next school. No pupil should be allowed to remain in any school, especially a high school, who constantly fails to improve the opportunities offered. The number of such will be very few when our high school courses become as broad as the needs of the pupils. As long as a pupil puts forth an honest effort there should be work provided which he can do with benefit to himself and with satisfaction to his teachers. The educational systems of the past have been exclusively or largely for the advancement of the intellectually endowed. We claim this to be both undemocratic, and fatal to the highest development of society at large. We unchangingly advocate systems and methods which are adapted to bring the greatest good to the faithful workers, even the least gifted; and to abolish caste distinctions based upon intellectual gifts. This seems a correct philosophy in a democratic institution, supported by the people and for the benefit of all.

This does not presuppose a lowering of standards of scholarship, but does mean adapting our methods and courses of study to the needs of the individuals, so that each, so far as in him lies the power and inclination, may attain some degree of scholarship. The wilfully negligent should not be maintained in any school. Parents and pupils alike ought to understand that regular attendance, earnest devotion to work, and an evident capacity to grasp the work of a higher grade, should form the basis of promotion.

The examinations for the high school entrance will be given in February and in June as was the case last year.

CENTER SCHOOL.

The Center schools opened at the beginning of the present school year with two of the three former teachers in the corps, which assured us a successful year. I am confident that the town can be proud of the work being done in these schools. For orderly conduct, earnestness of work, enthusiastic spirit and standard of attainment in the essential branches these schools stand with the best.

Miss Avis Carleton, who taught the primary school last year, was called to Beverly and Miss Ruth Moodie of Newburyport, a Salem Normal Graduate, was secured and is doing most efficient work.

NECK SCHOOL.

Miss Clark of the Neck school resigned last spring to be followed by Miss Lillian Reynolds, who has successfully conducted the school this present year. The school at present numbers twenty-one pupils, which number makes it a much easier school than that of last year. The work was greatly lightened by the elimination of the eighth grade caused by the removal from town of the two pupils constituting that grade. Since it necessitates the expenditure of so much time and energy to prepare pupils for the high school in the district schools, I am continually more convinced that the eighth grade work should not be attempted in them.

EAST SCHOOL.

Miss MacKenzie of the East School resigned in the summer to take a position in Essex. Miss Isabelle Delory of Swampscott was hired to take her place. This school continues to be a difficult problem. The school consists of eight boys and one girl who require as strong a teacher as any school in town. Miss Delory's resignation took effect at the end of January; she is followed by Mrs. Florence Dodge Hawkins, who so successfully conducted the school a few years past.

WEST SCHOOL.

The West School is enjoying a very propitious year under the same teacher as last year. The school has a fine spirit and accomplishes good work.

MUSIC AND DRAWING.

During the present year the music in the schools has been under the direction of Mr. Henry L. Stone, who is inspiring a love for music in the pupils and whose visits to the schools are anticipated eagerly by them.

Our drawing supervisor, Miss Mabel Lowery, has proved herself an able and efficient teacher.

CHANGE IN TEXT-BOOKS

It is not wise to make frequent changes in text-books, but when it becomes very evident that there is a superior book published, its introduction is advisable. This was the case with our text-book in geography. The geographies edited by the eminent geographer, Prof. Richard Dodge, and published by Rand, McNally & Co., is admirably adapted to our use, and the series has been adopted for use in the town. The 5th and 6th grades have been supplied.

Metcalf's Grammar has been replaced by Mary Hyde's "Use of English," published by D. C. Heath Co.

NINTH GRADE.

I quote from my report of 1906-'07: "When the time arrives that a fourth teacher must be hired in the Center building the work of the ninth grade could be managed and the saving in tuition will nearly pay her salary." In all probability our pupils would enter Beverly's tenth grade a little behind as was the case in Hamilton for two years before their High School was established. They were admitted to Beverly High lacking four out of the required eighteen points. These four points had to be made up before the pupils could graduate, which is not an over difficult task. I can see no economy in this plan and something of a loss in standing to our pupils in Beverly. Pupils in the lower grades of the school would be benefitted by a teacher as it would give fewer grades to a teacher.

SCHOOL GARDENS.

The Center School garden was run last spring with better success than previously, although the results are not yet satisfying. To get sufficient results to warrant its continuance some means must be provided for supervising the work during the summer vacation. The experimental work should be supplemented by a text book which presents the principles of agriculture.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.

On the last day of the winter term, March 18, there will be held the usual exhibition of school work in the schools. Parents are earnestly requested to visit the school at all times, and especially upon that day.

In closing this report, I wish to thank the teachers for their devotion to their duties and the School Committee for their helpful suggestions and cordial support.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW S. THOMSON,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC.

Mr. A. S. Thomson, Superintendent of Schools:

Dear Sir:—Having spent only about five hours in each room in the schools of Wenham, it is hardly to be expected that any great improvement could be brought about in music in that time. However improvement can be noticed in tone production, breath control and expression; but much is still to be desired in sight reading and the technique of music.

I heartily thank the teachers for their efforts; they deserve much praise. The pupils are to be commended for their attentiveness and eagerness to do all that is asked of them.

I would suggest that more time be given to the supervision. There remains, according to the present plan, about [illegible] time that has already been given, and this is not sufficient for the work the present supervisor would like to accomplish.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY L. STONE.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

OF THE

TOWN OF WENHAM

MASSACHUSETTS

FOR THE

Year Ending December 31, 1909

BEVERLY, MASS.
THE CITIZEN PRINTING COMPANY

To the Citizens of Wenham:

The Board of Trustees of the Public Library of the Town of Wenham respectfully submit the following report of their doings as your servants for the year ending December 31, 1909.

At the Annual Town Meeting in March, 1907, under article ten of the warrant, the following vote in relation to the Public Library was passed,—"Voted:—to increase the number of trustees from three (members) to six, that (the) membership be (equally) divided between the sexes, and that (the) additional members be chosen by 'Official Ballot' (at the next annual town meeting) in 1909; one for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, to correspond with (the) terms of the (present) incumbents."

In accordance with this vote, three new members were duly elected at the Annual Town Meeting in March, 1909, as follows:

For one year, Rev. Walter S. Eaton.
For two years, Ruth H. Prince.
For three years, Adeline P. Cole.
Henry A. Moulton was also elected for three years.

Since that time the Board of Trustees has been constituted as follows:—

Walter S. Eaton,	Term expires March, 1910
Alice G. Whitney,	Term expires March, 1910
Benjamin H. Conant,	Term expires March, 1911
Ruth H. Prince,	Term expires March, 1911
Henry A. Moulton,	Term expires March, 1912
Adeline P. Cole,	Term expires March, 1912

ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD.

The Board organized on April 13, 1909, by the election of Rev. Walter S. Eaton as Chairman, and Mr. Benjamin H. Conant Secretary and Treasurer. Mr. Benjamin H. Conant was appointed Librarian for the ensuing year, and Mr. Conant and Mrs. E. B. Cole were appointed by the Chairman as a Purchasing Committee. A communication was received from Mr. W. Pool in regard to hanging the old brick house tavern sign in the Library room for exhibition and preservation until perhaps at some future time an Historical Society may be formed. After some discussion it was voted to accept the trust until a more appropriate place was found.

MEETINGS.

Meetings of the Board are held the first Tuesday of each month at four o'clock in the afternoon, and at other times when important matters are to be considered.

Since its organization the Board has held nine regular meetings and four special meetings. The average attendance of the monthly meetings of the Board has been five.

READING ROOM.

In the hopes of making the Reading Room more serviceable to both young and old, Mr. B. F. Young was engaged to take charge of it Tuesday and Thursday evenings from seven to nine o'clock. With the exception of a few young people hardly any of the citizens availed themselves of the privilege thus offered them, and for this reason the Reading Room is now open only on Monday evenings.

LIBRARIAN'S ASSISTANT.

Owing to the brief time alloted to the patrons of the Library to exchange their books and to secure others, your Board of Trustees have been fortunate in securing the services of Miss Grace E. Perkins to assist the Librarian on the evenings when the Library is open.

CATALOGUE.

At their first meeting your Board of Trustees carefully considered the matter of publishing a catalogue of the Library that its patrons might acquaint themselves with its contents. The Librarian was authorized to prepare such a catalogue. Owing to business of a personal nature, and after having devoted some time to this work, the Librarian reported to the Board of Trustees that he would not be able to complete the work on the catalogue as soon as they felt that it should be in the hands of the citizens. The Trustees then endeavored to secure a cataloguer, but the short time and limited appropriation made such expert work impossible. The Trustees then undertook to do the work themselves, and with the exception of clerical assistance, this work has been voluntary. The catalogue is now in the hands of the printer, and it is hoped that it may be distributed with this report.

CARD-CATALOGUE.

Our Library is especially fortunate in having a Card-Catalogue which will always be up to date and accessible. This system will furnish the patrons of the Library with a more detailed description of each book than can be found in the printed catalogue. The Card-Catalogue, which was a gift to the Town, was finished in February.

BULLETIN-BOARD.

An educational feature of the Library is the Bulletin-Board, of which Miss Ruth H. Prince has charge. Each month there have been posted lists of books that are in the Library relative to the literary events of the day, and also the list of new books with reviews and criticisms. As soon as new books are purchased, their titles and the names of their authors are published in the "Beverly Times" and "Salem News".

JUVENILES.

Of the books that have recently been added to the Library a large proportion of them are for Juveniles.

Respectfully submitted,

BENJAMIN H. CONANT,
WALTER S. EATON,
ADELINE P. COLE,
RUTH H. PRINCE,
A GERTRUDE WHITNEY,
Trustees of Library.

REPORT OF TREE WARDEN.

The street trees are in very good condition; very little defoliating by the elm leaf beetle. The work of this department the past season was trimming and cleaning up limbs damaged by the ice storms; also removed several dead trees, and purchased 16 sugar maples to replace them.

(Signed) J. D. BARNES,

Tree Warden.

REPORT OF MOTH SUPERINTENDENT.

At this writing the street trees have all been cleaned of brown-tail and gypsy moths. Last spring it was decided not to do any burlaping, but spraying instead. In some sections of the town it made the cost of cleaning this fall a little more; but on the whole we think it was an improvement over burlaping.

This year the state has decided not to do any cutting along the roadside, but to use that amount of money on infested woodland. A piece has been cleaned off on Topsfield road and we are cleaning a piece on Walnut st.

(Signed) J. D. BARNES,

Local Moth Superintendent.

The committee have had two new plans drawn of the cemetery and have made a few improvements, such as putting in a new catch basin at the foot of the hill near the tool house, cutting down and trimming trees in the old cemetery and setting out new ones on some of the avenues recently laid out, besides looking after the cemetery in general. FIRE DEPARTMENT REPORT.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Gentlemen: I herewith submit the report of the condition of this department:

During the year we did not have a fire, but on March 25 we went to Hamilton, in answer to a call for help and we did good work, as the following letter will explain:

Salem, Mass., April 1, 1910

Mr. H. E. Durgin, Chief of the Wenham Fire Depatment, Wenham, Mass.

My Dear Sir: I wish to thank you and your men from the bottom of my heart who worked so hard to save my home in the Hamilton fire last Friday. Your good old hand engine certainly did great work and held back the fire from my house until we were able to get the help of the steamer.

Enclosed please find my check for $100 to be used as you all deem best.

Thanking you again, I remain

Yours very truly,

(Signed) JONATHAN BROWN, JR.

REPORT OF SELECTMEN.

On April 13, 1910, the Selectmen were given a hearing by the Massachusetts Highway Commission on the condition and needs of Main street. As a result of this conference, it was agreed that the Highway Commission should do all of the work and furnish all of the material and the Town would honor their orders to the amount of five cents per square yard as its portion of the expenses. The work was to be done as early as the season would allow for a good job, but owing to the two weeks of dull weather in the early part of June and to the large amount of work which the contractor, to whom the contract was given, had on hand, the work was somewhat delayed. The previous year's (1909) application was all scraped off and heavy oil, applied hot and covered with gravel and crushed stone, was put on and then rolled. The expense to the Town was $591.00 and the Highway Commission paid as much more.

The object of the Town in spending this money was that the dust nuisance might be abated, which seems to have been satisfactorily accomplished, but it also has its disadvantages in summer, in that loaded teams draw much harder and in cold weather it is very slippery. The Highway Commission does not expect that it will need anything done to it this year.

Considerable expense was again found necessary on the Topsfield road at the "Wenham Causeway." The action of the Commissioners of the U. S. government in cutting the trees and bushes on each side of the road, while it did not really make the road any narrower, yet it made it appear so by exposing to view all the narrow and dangerous places. At some points less than 15 feet in width was safe for public travel. After carefully looking over the situation we decided, in view of the large increase of summer travel in that locality, that the risk of accident was too great to have it remain as it was. As a result of competitive bids, the contract for hauling the material for filling was awarded to Edgar E. Stanyan for 38 cents per square yard, the Town to pay for the material and leveling. 681 yards of gravel and rocks were used and the road to the length of 1000 feet or more was widened to an average of about 22 feet. About 200 feet of guard railing was placed at the culverts and other exposed places. With a general smoothing over the coming season and the erection of some additional railing we think the road will be reasonably safe.

The following is an extract from a letter received from Mr. Wm. D. Sohier, dated January 27, 1911:

"I hope that this year your board and the Town will feel that they ought to pay something more than they have in the past towards the repair and maintenance of Grapevine road. It seems to me that the Town of Wenham could afford to pay, and ought to pay, some reasonable amount per mile a year towards repair and maintenance. I should think $100 a mile would be a very fair allowance as every year from $600 to $700 a mile is spent on it, and especially as this year at least $1800 will be spent in improvements, without any expense whatever to the Town. Last year the oiling and repair of these roads and the one mile in Hamilton cost something over $2500."

The two cisterns which were to be built, one on Main street and the other on Arbor street have been completed and are now full of water.

After the new street through the Tilton property had been accepted it was found that there was a cistern which came within the limits of the highway and that with comparatively small expense could be filled with water from the drainage of the street. Accordingly a catch basin was built a new cover put on, and proper connections made, and at an expense of $60.00, we have a valuable addition to our system of cisterns for fire protection.

At the last annual meeting, the Selectmen were instructed to have the town clock put in thorough repair. This work was delayed until necessary repairs on the church tower had been completed. Since these repairs have been made, the clock has done good service and seems to have taken a new lease of life, consequently nothing has been done to it.

In accordance with the vote passed at the last annual town meeting, we placed the uncollected taxes for the years 1907-8 in the hands of the Tax Collector for collection. Before doing this, however, notices were sent to all persons whose names were on the books as in arrear for taxes, asking for an immediate reply as to the facts of the case. The replies received confirmed our worst fears and revealed the fact that a large proportion of the taxes reported as due had been paid and receipted bills and cancelled checks were held in proof of payment. Under this condition of affairs, the duty of the Selectmen seemed plain, and the action taken and the results attained are known to all, and we think was generally approved. The amount actually collected on each of the two years (1907-8) is reported on another page.

At the time of writing this report we are not prepared to definitely report as to the amount that will be received from the principal and sureties on the Collector's bond for the two years in question.

The whole matter was new and untried business for the board and has been given a great deal of attention.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES H. McQUEENY,
N. PORTER PERKINS,
ARTHUR D. PRINCE,
Selectmen of Wenham.

SPECIAL AUDITOR'S REPORT

Wenham, Dec. 24, 1910

The Honorable The Board of Selectmen of the Town of Wenham, Mass.

Gentlemen:—

In compliance with your request, I have examined the accounts of your town for a period from January 1, 1904, to January 1, 1910, and beg to report as follows:—

I have carefully scrutinized the accounts of your Treasurer, added and balanced his cash account, examined his vouchers for payments and his distribution of expenses, with the following result:—

The Treasurer's balance, Dec. 31, 1909,		$2,885.84
was found inaccurate to small amount, owing to clerical errors and duplicate payment, resulting in Balance		$2,882.91
and consequent SURPLUS of		$ 2.93

which has been corrected, with detailed explanation on Treasurer's book, and is included in balance December 10, 1910, following:—

			$264,475.04

Most of the disbursements are found supported by proper vouchers, either receipted accounts, or paid checks.

Some are found only supported by the order of selectmen, and some show neither receipts, endorsed checks, nor order, as hereafter mentioned, but in all cases are found properly distributed, and charged to proper accounts. All bills are found to have the approval of Selectmen or heads of Departments, and only in few instances are orders signed by less than the full board.

MISSING VOUCHERS.

1905 50 payments, Nos. 101 to 150 with neither receipt nor order.

26 payments, 2 supported by Selectmen orders, but no receipts.

24 on account of Cemetery Commission, Allen and Perkins Funds, without receipt or order, but charged to proper accounts.

1906 13 payments, 9 with no receipts, but supported by Selectmen's order.

4 with neither receipt nor order, but charged on proper accounts.

1907 9 payments, 2 payments, no receipts, but supported by Selectmen's orders.

2 payments, neither receipts nor order, but charged to proper accounts.

5 payments, neither receipts nor order, but charged to proper accounts.

1908 32 payments, 5 payments, with no receipts, but supported by Selectmen's orders.

27 payments, with neither receipts nor order, but charged to proper account.

1909 1 payment, neither receipt nor order, but charged to proper account.

Note.—Where payments are without proper vouchers, I find on examination that the stub in order book of Selectmen shows proper amount and date and authority for the disbursement.

The absence of these vouchers is reasonably accounted for, in part by the frequent charges in Town office, and corresponding disturbance of files, absense of proper filing facilities, misapprehension of the requirements of evidence of payment, and absence of proper system of office routine.

No evidence of misapplication, or the diverting of funds to improper purposes, appears in this.

Selectmen's approval and orders are only authority to pay. Acknowledgement of receipt by payee is evidence of payment and a voucher.

I have examined the accounts of your collector of taxes for the year covered by this report, and submit herewith a tabulated account of charges and credits to the collector, with balance due the town.

I have verified as far as possible the records of uncollected taxes, but not a complete verification owing to the incomplete records of payment by the collector.

F. P. Stanton, Collector.

Owing to the confused condition of F. P. Stanton's books, I have been unable to verify the uncollected taxes; but the Selectmen having taken every possible means of ascertaining the uncollected taxes, I have taken their statement of same as basis of my report, which agrees perfectly with report of Selectmen of 1909, though arrived at by different procedure.

I have also deemed it unnecessary to attempt the verification of Tax Levy, Additional Taxes, Abatements, Interest and Discount, and Excise Tax of the B. & N. St. R. R.

The Assets of the Town have not been verified as no inventory of material has been submitted.

The Liabilities of the Town appears as far as ascertainable as follows:

	1907	3,191.27
	1909	4,351.76
			$23,295.93
Jan. 1, 1910, balance over payment			$53.22

Above balance was over payment of appropriation in 1908 and was so carried in Town Report; but no order to transfer from General Fund to New School House Fund was given until 1910. It therefore stands open on Treasurer's Account as over payment of appropriation and balance.

Balance due Perkins Fund $567.96 now in General Fund.
Balance due Allen Fund 496.81 now in General Fund.

Would recommend that these amounts be taken from the General Fund and deposited in Savings Bank with principal where the accumulation may receive interest.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I would advise a separate ledger for Trust Funds. Each fund to have a separate account, with conditions and purposes of gift, with accumulation and payments, so that each account shows available amounts for expenditure.

As the income of these accounts is collected and disbursed by the Treasurer under the direction of the Selectmen as trustees, I would suggest that he have custody of the accounts and the accounting.

For the better distribution of the expenses and economy of time and labor of Selectmen, I would recommend a new Treasurer's book, which will show the different accounts in columns for both receipts and payments.

I would also recommend that the payments of the Treasurer be made, as far as possible by checks, and with corresponding dates of order, payments and charge. As is now the custom, an order may cover several payments and various dates of same.

I would recommend that an inventory of Town property be made each year with cost, depreciation and value.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. MASURY,
Public Accountant and Auditor.

I hereby certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts and figures given in the foregoing are correct and represent the true condition of the Town affairs.

C . H. MASURY, Auditor.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

The school buildings have required no expenditure during the past year beyond ordinary small repairs. The changes and improvements on Grape Vine road made by North Shore contributors may necsssitate the removal of the East school. The only land which seems available is directly opposite the present location and the building will be better placed in this location than in its previous position, although the committee would have liked to have seen it more apart from the main line of automobile travel.

It seems proper at this time to ask for the installation of electric lights at the Centre school. We need the lights during the long days in winter for the late afternoon meeting, and as a much safer and better method of lighting the basement. The yearly expense will be inconsiderable, considering the convenience and safety of electricity over our present method of lighting by kerosene.

SUPERINTENDENT.

At the annual meeting in April called for the election of District superintendent, the town of Hamilton withdrew from the association; owing to its increased valuation, it no longer received state aid and preferred to provide for its own superintendent.

This left the towns of Wenham, Essex and Middleton alone in the union. For some weeks the continuation of the union seemed doubtful, but on May 1st the three towns voted to continue the union and to proceed with the election of a superintendent; the proportion of time and expense being allotted as follows: Wenham, two-fifths; Essex, two-fifths; Middleton, one-fifth. From the long list of applicants, six very desirable candidates were chosen and from this number,

Mr. H. R. Williams was unanimously chosen as the man best suited to our several needs.

Mr. Williams came to us well experienced both as teacher and superintendent, with a record of conscientious effort and most worthy accomplishment. With such a record we believe our citizens have a right to expect thorough and progressive school work under his supervision.

TEACHERS.

Nothing makes for more steady progress like the continuation of the work of the same good corps of teachers. The committee regretted to accept the resignation of Miss Ruth Moodie, who had worked with such success at the Centre primary, but with this exception we were fortunate in retaining all the teachers.

No time could be better in this annual report to the citizens to express the committee's appreciation of the zealous work of all these teachers, who, by familarity with the local conditions, the temperments and needs of the pupils, have lost no time in meeting the requirements of the schools. Thus, there has been a continuance of purpose that has produced the best results.

The teachers' meeting during the fall term brought together superintendent, teachers and committee and worked for a better understanding and hearty co-operation in the school work.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The courses of study have been little changed during the year, but greater emphasis on English, our weak point, has been made in all the schools.

Drawing has been omitted during the year to give place to penmanship. For some time the committee have desired to put our pupils in line with the prevailing system of penmanship, but owing to expense involved in securing a special teacher, it has not been feasible. Mr. Williams, being thoroughly trained in the new system and competent to instruct the teachers, has undertaken the change greatly to our advantage. A more detailed report of this work will be found in Mr. Williams' report.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS.

While the District schools will always be ready to prepare pupils for the High School course, we must continue to emphasize the advantage of preparation at the Centre School.

The pupils, thrown with a larger number, learn better to take their own measure, receive an additional quickening to effort and are better prepared for their High School life.

It is not a question of passing an examination or of keeping up to a certain standard in the High School, but of a fuller and broader development which helps the pupil to get the most from the education which the town offers.

This year there was only one pupil in the eighth grade at the Neck, the parents of whom decided to give her the advantage of the Centre Grammar School.

Seventeen pupils were graduated from the Grammar School in June; a class notably well balanced and well prepared for their High School work; ten entered Beverly High School on certificate, three on trial and two entered Salem High School on examination.

The general record of our pupils in the High School has given the committee much satisfaction as showing the good foundation work as laid by Miss Adlington in her Grammar School drill.

For the maintainance of the Schools for the coming year the committee ask for the following amounts:

Superintendent	$100.00
Teachers	2190.00
Janitors	500.00
Fuel	300.00
Repairs	200.00
Books and supplies	325.00
Incidentals	250.00
High School tuition	2,000.00
High School transportation	485.00
Electric fixtures	125.00
		$6,475.00

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

To the School Committee of Wenham:—

The following report of the condition and progress of the schools of Wenham is submitted for your consideration. Coming to this position as I did after the close of the schools in June 1910, my report must be largely an estimate of present conditions and an outlook for future progress.

AN ESTIMATE OF THE PRESENT.

During four months' work in the schools, I have found three great essentials for a good school system. First there is a very conscientious, hard-working corps of teachers. They are ever ready to give to their schools such service as will render them highly efficient in training the boys and girls for the work that is to come in the schools and in forming character that will count for good citizenship in the life beyond the school. Second, I have found in the schools children who appreciate and enjoy the schools provided for them. There is a most excellent spirit in all the schools and the children seem to be willing and anxious to do their best work. Of course there are some things that can be made better, but with the interest and earnestness of the teachers and the good spirit of the children there is great pleasure and encouragement in working for improvement. Third and quite as important as the others, I have found that the people of Wenham take a great deal of pride in their schools and are determined that the boys and girls shall have all advantages within the means of a town of its size.

These are three highly important factors in the interest of good school system, and they make possible the approach to schools second to none in the smaller towns of the Commonwealth.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

It is gratifying to note the good attendance in the schools for the year 1909-10. I have already said that the people believe in their schools, and in nothing do they show their faith more than in sending their children to them promptly and regularly. The number of absences for other causes than sickness has been very small and trouble on account of tardiness has been confined to a single pupil.

This good attendance counts largely towards the high grade of work done in the schools.

PUBLIC DAY.

In the fall term, November 9, was observed as Parents' Day at the Center School and many parents showed their interest by being present at some time during the day. Other special days will be observed during the winter and spring terms.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS.

Up to the present time three meetings of the teachers have been held: two at the Center School building and one at Salem. At one of the meetings at the Center School and at the meeting at Salem, the purpose was a discussion of and lessons in the new method in writing. At Salem, Mrs. Florence Marshall of Newton, representing the A. N. Palmer Co., gave a talk and instruction to the teachers of Wenham, Essex and Middleton. At the third meeting, subjects of importance to the schools were discussed by the superintendent.

More of these meetings could be held at the Center School if it were lighted.

TEACHERS' SALARIES.

It is encouraging to note that the people of Wenham are willing to pay their teachers salaries sufficient to hold them in the schools. This may be considered one important reason for the high grade of work done in the schools. When a good teacher can be retained at an increase of a few dollars a year, the money thus spent is a valuable investment for the town.

There was but one change in teachers in the fall term but just as this report is going to press we regret to receive the resignation of Miss Nettie F. Carrell, who has done excellent work for the past three years in the West School.

MUSIC, DRAWING AND WRITING.

The music for the year has been under the same direction as last year, Mr. Henry L. Stone being supervisor. His report is presented herewith.

There has not been a supervisor of drawing during the past year. The time has been used for special work in penmanship during the fall term. That work has advanced so well that I earnestly recommend that the instruction in drawing be resumed, as it is a very important branch of the school work. The teachers have carried on some work but are unable to get the results the same work would bring under proper supervision.

For the work in writing, the Palmer Method of Business Penmanship was introduced early in the Fall term. This method of writing is presented in a text-book with plainly printed instructions telling teachers and pupils exactly how to proceed to master quickly and easily an ideal and permanent style of rapid, plain and tireless writing. Where this method is introduced, the teachers get free a course of instruction, if they will give fifteen or twenty minutes a day to the necessary practice. This work is necessary on the part of the teacher, for it is as necessary to know writing to teach it well, as it is to know any other subject. This has been the difficulty in the past. We have expected the system to do the work, and when it has not produced results we have changed the copybooks. All systems have been more or less successful in the hands of teachers who have mastered them. The Palmer Method is a system that any teacher can master and I am glad to report that the Wenham teachers are now making good progress and the results of their work are showing in the schools. By June we shall be able to show good results in the upper grades and another year will bring great improvement in all the grades.

TEXT BOOKS.

The change in geographies has been completed and the entire series of the Dodge geographies is now in use in the schools. Three books of the Gulick Hygiene series have been placed in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, replacing several of the old line physiologies. There are two more books in the Gulick series for fourth and fifth grades which we hope to place in those grades soon. A very little supplementary reading has been added to the list and much more is needed.

REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC.

To the Superintendent of Schools:

The singing of rote songs has been the chief feature of the work in music in the earlier grades. These songs have been selected with due regard to their appropriateness and attractiveness. That the children thoroughly enjoy this part of the work has been clearly shown by the heartiness of their singing. Very simple exercises for tonal and rythmical ear training have been given to them from time to time, and their attention has been called to these intervals and rythms in their simple sight reading exercises.

In the middle grades songs are first studied as melodious exercises and then sung as songs. In these grades a little two-part work has been done. The ear training exercises have been made more and more difficult. Here the work in sight reading has been considered an important feature; and, while most of this reading has been class work up to this time, greater and greater stress will henceforth be put on individual work.

In the highest grades the pupils have sung songs which require considerable musical understanding for correct interpretation. They have had sung to them many difficult exercises of both diatonic and chromatic construction for the purpose of tonal ear training and many exercises of complicated rhythmic figures for rhythmical ear training.

In all the grades the pupils have entered heartily into their work, and they are to be commended for their attentiveness and willingness. The zeal the pupils have shown in their work with me can be attributed greatly to the helpful co-operation of the teachers; and for this co-operation I am deeply grateful.

Respectfully submitted,
HENRY L. STONE.

IN CLOSING.

I wish to express my highest appreciation of the very pleasant attitude of teachers, children and parents during these first few months of my work as superintendent in Wenham. I also wish to thank the committee for their kind assistance and helpful advice.

Attention is called to the appendix of this report which contains some things of interest to all concerned.

Respectfully submitted,

H. R. WILLIAMS,
Superintendent of Schools.

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

OF THE

TOWN OF WENHAM

FOR THE

Year Ending December 31, 1910

THE CITIZEN PRINTING CO.

REPORT OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

The trustees of the Wenham Public Library respectfully submit their annual report for the year 1910.

The trustees determined at the beginning of the year to devote the larger sha re of the town's appropriation for the purchase of books, to supplying deficiencies which existed in the library, thereby making it better balanced and more usable to the varied needs of the town.

The juveniles were first considered, and a carefully made list selected, of books of such permanent value as a small library needs for its most economical adminitration. The trustees now feel that with the regular yearly additions, the children have a selection of books sufficiently large for their number and needs.

The second serious need was a better or rather larger selection of reference books especially needed by the High School pupils. This want has been met by the purchase of a number of standard up-to-date works, the list including the International Encyclopedia, which puts the library on a workable basis, for all those desiring general reference facilities.

Each month we have purchased some of the best of the new fiction, and have made every endeavor to put them in circulation while they were new and desirable. Works of fiction of this class are entertaining and desirable, but as they are not of permanent value, it does not seem wise to devote too large a proportion of the appropriation to this class of books.

The very excellent list of magazines and periodicals which the library is so fortunate in possessing supplies a large amount of current reading matter each month.

Knowing that very many were unable to avail themselves of the privileges of the reading room, the trustees have put a portion of the magazines in circulation, after they have been in the reading room one month, allowing them to remain out a week. We have been disappointed that more citizens have not taken advantage of this opportunity and only wait to see the present privileges improved before putting all the magazines in circulation.

The trustees feel that every citizen is now informed at all times of what the library contains. In addition to the new catalogue which was distributed a year ago, the monthly record of accessions printed in the local papers, and posted on the bulletin board, keep the catalogue up to date.

In every school there has also been posted a list of books adapted to each grade, as an aid to the children in selecting the most suitable reading matter.

We have been fortunate in spending the town appropriation at most excellent advantages. In addition to the regular library discount, we have been able to avail ourselves of special opportunities, and have secured many valuable books, at a minimum price.

In the librarians report will be found a list of the books donated, and the very generous gift of Dr. John Phillips of valuable magazines for the reading table.

In the town tresurers report will be found the itemized amount of our expenditures.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH H. PRINCE
Secretary of Board of Trustees.

The above account represents the bills that were paid before the end of the Town's fiscal year, Dec. 31, 1910. The following bills were contracted during the year 1910 but were not submitted to the trustees for approval until after Jan. 1, 1911, consequently they do not appear in the Selectmen's report. They are inserted here to show that the town's appropriation for the ordinary support of the library has been actually expended during the year.

Bills approved Jan. 3, 1911, and charged to the regular account.

In justice to the Trustees it should be stated that they did not expect that the insurance would be taken from the Library appropriation, but that it would be charged as heretofore to the Town incidentals, in which case they would have had a surplus of $25.62 after all bills incurred during the year had been paid.
